

PRIEST'S STATEMENT

Cursillo is for persons who have a Christian commitment and who want renewal and growth in that commitment; it is not intended to be a conversion experience. The goal of Cursillo is to empower Christians who are, or can become, leaders into vital, inspired witnesses for Christ. It is NOT for persons going through a personal crisis, who are not baptized, who are seeking the Weekend experience as an end in itself, who have difficulty living and working in a community situation, who cannot make a commitment to continued action in the Fourth Day, or, who cannot receive the Sacraments.

As the priest for this potential candidate, you may have private information which may indicate that this is not the appropriate time for recommendation for a Cursillo weekend. Or, when this candidate is called for a weekend, you may wish to discuss him/her/them with the Spiritual Director of the weekend. The purpose of this form is to furnish that avenue of communication. The Weekend Preparation Chairperson, the Cursillo Commission Spiritual Director and the Spiritual Director of the Candidate's Cursillo weekend are the only people who will see this form.

If a candidate is married it is recommended that both attend a Cursillo because a Cursillo experience is intended to be shared. However, if there are occasions when one spouse declines to attend for personal reasons, the other spouse should be allowed to attend.

The 2010 weekend cost is $180.00 and includes the $25 deposit. If financial assistance is needed please first pursue all resources (sponsors, your discretionary funds, Ultreya collections, etc) prior to contacting the Cursillo Treasurer, Joe Welch roy_w15@yahoo.com - Max request is $75.
